

International games – Trisomy Games

We want to encourage parents to participate in sport. It facilitates friendships, builds self esteem, is a healthy way to alleviate stress and frustration, opens doors, widens perspectives and broadens horizons.

